He can't stand his child being involved in the Army or Navy and when his son accepts the Navy he becomes a Military Paranoid schizophrenic. He becomes paranoid that he is being monitored and that the Government has a chip inside him and is not allowed to have his father's name. He wants to retire to no where but he can't because his name is known and he goes to a nearby jungle with his friend in which they befriend a dog named Sarah, which he calls her and they eventually decide to go back home but the plan is not as well thought out as Manoj. He finds out his business is being watched by the Government and then finds his wife in bed with his best friend and then he is sent to a mental institution and he is given drugs to calm him down. His name is cleared and he returns to the Army and the woman he loves but she just falls back into his arms. He is on the verge of retirement and the Army decides to use a chip in him and then he dies and goes to heaven. He finds his father in heaven and realizes he was right all along. . Movies .
