There are closed questions that are hidden to the non-moderators of the site. Only the close voters and the moderators know why the questions are closed. Is there a way to find out the reason why these questions were closed? A: You can view the details of a close vote or a post that has been closed in two places: It will be visible in your profile under the closed posts link, if you have enough reputation to access your profile. If you go to a specific question or answer, you'll see a link like this: The time it was closed is right there at the bottom of the post. A: Another way to do it is by clicking on the reason(s) for which a question was closed.
