My most recent assignment was at the UW-Madison with a coach that I couldn't have found anywhere else. There are not enough ways to say how much I value the encouragement I get from The Teaching Square and the fantastic coaches that help me with the important things in my profession. Thank you for helping me to be a better teacher!" --Steven Bauman, Macalester College "The thing that I love most about TeachSquare is the daily interaction and support from our coaches. I have never worked with a group of people who were as committed to helping me be the best I can be as a coach, colleague, and friend. As a result, I am the best teacher I can be in the classroom and I am a happier person outside of it" --Kate Field, Macalester College "I have been a member of TeachSquare for a few years and am amazed at how well I am being coached. I am being coached in areas of preparing lesson plans, use of the tools, and dealing with student issues. In addition, I have benefited tremendously from the many contacts I have made on the site. I have met people who have become friends and mentors, and who have informed me about the latest developments in teaching practice. This is a group of dedicated coaches who make it possible for me to go to work every day and enjoy teaching." --Richard P. Balluff, Northfield Mount Hermon School "What I like most about TeachSquare is the interaction with the coaches. They are there to encourage and support you, as a teacher, as you improve. All you have to do is post what's going on in your classroom. The coaches respond to those posts and see what you are doing right or wrong. You
