Klebsiella pneumoniae mediastinitis: a case report and literature review. A 29-year-old, previously healthy man presented with a fever, neck swelling and dyspnoea 1 week after open-heart surgery. Computed tomography of the neck revealed a large abscess in the left parapharyngeal space and osteolysis in the sternum. Pus culture grew Klebsiella pneumoniae. After an initial response to meropenem, the infection spread to the left mediastinal space. Intercostal drainage failed to relieve symptoms and the patient died 3 days later. Review of literature revealed only 13 cases of Klebsiella pneumoniae infection in patients with congenital heart disease. Thomas I live on a street with a lot of problems in this town. Our trees have been cut down and taken illegally to a distant land that they were not supposed to be in. We have a lot of decaying trees and even rotting wood. We have a lot of garbage that is not picked up. We do not have a place to play on that is safe. We have a lot of people that sell drugs and other illegal things at our place, we have nothing to do. I was wondering if I could earn a little extra money and not have to go and sell drugs myself. I would love to sell a nice set of false teeth, if you can donate a used or new set let me know, thank you. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez sent a warning to corporations on Monday, telling them that if they do not follow the rules, they could face regulation. "I don't think they'll like it," the freshman congresswoman said, when asked if she is worried about the consequences of high school students and teenagers facing arrest if they protest. "I don't think they appreciate the position their responsibility puts them in. And I think that is a real obstacle." The freshman congresswoman's comments come after 12-year-old Hong Kong student Joshua Wong posted a video on Twitter of him holding an American flag. Wong was arrested and charged with unlawful assembly 55cdc1ed1c
