View full sizeBrent Wojahn, Portland Press Herald fileA tractor trailer jackknifed on Route 1 in Gorham, N.H. The crash killed two people and injured five others. GORHAM, N.H. — Two people died and five others were injured when a tractor-trailer jackknifed on a New Hampshire interstate early Sunday and smashed into a vehicle. Portland Press Herald reported that two of the injured — a female in her 20s and a male in his 30s — died at the scene. State police said the two other injuries — one a woman in her 50s and a child in the vehicle — were taken to Maine Medical Center in Portland. The Associated Press reported the crash happened about 3:25 a.m. on Interstate 93 in Gorham. State police said they don't believe speed was a factor in the crash. The truck's driver and an occupant of a car were killed. The incident occurred in the left lane of I-93 just south of exit 13.Springfield City Council Vetoed Anti-Gay Marriage Bill The Springfield City Council voted Tuesday to repeal a city-wide law that prohibited discrimination against gays and lesbians, denying the measure final passage. The council has not acted on other gay and lesbian-rights measures since it voted in favor of same-sex marriage last fall. Opponents of the Springfield law had urged the council to hold off until a lawsuit challenging the law was filed. The lawsuit was filed in December by a group of Springfield businesses that said the law violates their right to religious
