It's a very useful tool, more than I expected. I've seen it being mentioned in one of the top 10 jEdit plugins, and thought I would give it a try. It runs very well and its a breeze to use. I am using version 1.4.2 of Cscope, and it works well with that too. A great tool, I've used it for many years. CscopeFinder for jEdit 1.4.2 Help File A screenshot of the available cscope commands:
