The kit of your choice can be turned into a real-life replica of your favourite players “by selecting from large numbers of different models, sizes and colour variants of the same player,” according to EA Sports. The kit creator and real-life version of the player can also be unlocked to use in game on the buy mode in which you can create your very own player and kit. In a twist on previous games, custom-made players will feature on the official new FIFA 18 cover star list. The 25 top players for FIFA 18 are determined by a combination of video analysis, fan voting and EA Sports editorial and creative content teams. The video player will be a fan exclusive for FIFA 18.
