Field of the Invention The present invention relates to a fixing structure of a heat dissipating fan, and particularly relates to a fixing structure of a heat dissipating fan for reducing fluctuations of a mounting position of the heat dissipating fan. 2. Description of Related Art Generally speaking, an internal combustion engine of a vehicle can usually generate a high temperature upon running the vehicle, such as a car, a motor cycle, and so on. As a result, the heat dissipating device is mounted on the internal combustion engine, such that the heat dissipating device can absorb the heat generated by the internal combustion engine to reduce the temperature of the internal combustion engine. Usually, the heat dissipating device includes a heat dissipating fan, and a fixing structure is disposed between the heat dissipating fan and a radiator of the heat dissipating device. The fixing structure is used to fix the heat dissipating

Complete preoperative evaluation is essential for treatment of polydactyly. Limited data exist concerning which factors might affect the success of preoperative evaluation of polydactyly. The aim of this study was to identify associations of these factors with the success of an evaluation. This study assessed all patients with preoperative information collected during a 5-year period. The following criteria were collected: gender, age at operation, type of polydactyly (distal versus proximal, hypodactyly versus normodactyly), presence of syndromic features, and site of polydactyly (forefoot versus hindfoot). Data were collected from clinic and hospital records. A total of 227 patients were evaluated, with 71% having a bilateral or mixed pattern. Over half of patients were Q: How to make a javascript check if a hidden field has a number value I have a hidden field on my page with a value of "1" When I submit the form I want my javascript to check if the hidden field has a value.
